ONTRY Degramy (fewich Zone) REPORT NOL  Strausborr Airfield  25X1A  WALUATION  PLACE OBTAINED  ARE OF CONTENT CARTY in 10 Newsmber 1951  SX1 OBTAINED  EFFERENCES  AGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)  ZEMARKS  25X1  SEMARKS  SEMARKS  25X1  SEMARKS  SEMARKS  25X1  SEMARKS  SEMARK	7 25
ALUATION PLACE OBTAINED 25X1A  ARE OF CONTENT. early to 10 Navember 1951  SX1  ARE OBTAINED 10 DATE PREPARED 30 Navember 1953  EFFERENCES  AGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. a TYPE) 25X1  EMARKS.  25X1  1. In early November 1951, preparations for the transfer of the unit stationed at the field were under way. Some air force officers and a sergeant carrying baggage were observed earlying at the field. Since the sergeant was fornedly observed in Strausborg, it is possible that the forms unit returned to the airfield. Almost no flying was performed during the preceding two weeks. The field seemed to be described. There was little twa such as the field were under was inflying. The underground fuel containers were removed. The arrival of fuel was not observed. Income of 3 or h men with brunks were accasionally seen 1 leaving the field.  25X1  25X1  *  Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausbory airfield has not been leaving the field. Indicating the transfer of this unit. It is believed improbable that the bomber regiment which was transferred to Granishurg on 22 January 1951 returned to fire present regiment which was stationed in Strausborg prior to the beader regiment returned from Altenburg airfield to Strausborg. There are no indications that the air transport regimen which was stationed in Strausborg prior to the beader regiment returned from Altenburg airfield to Strausborg.
ALUATION PLACE OBTAINED  ATE OF CONTENT carly to 10 Newmber 1951  ATE OBTAINED  DATE PREPARED 30 Newmber 1951  EFERENCES  AGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. 6 Type) 25X1  EMARKS  25X1  EMARKS  25X1  In early Newmber 1951, preparations for the transfer of the unit stationed at the field were under way. Some air force officers and a sergeant carrying baggage were observed arriving at the field. Since the sergeant was formerly observed in Strausborg, it is possible that the former unit returned to the carriving to be described. There was little traffic by trucks.  25X1  25X1  25X1  25X1  25X1  Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausborg airfield has not been and to be contained. Incurs of 3 or home with trunks were consciously seen leaving the field.  SX1  AREFERENCE CODY  REFERENCE CODY  REFER
ARE OF CONTENT early to 10 Newember 1951  SX1  ARE OBTAINET  DATE PREPARED 30 Newember 1952  EFFERENCES  AGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) 25X1  EMARKS  25X1  1. In early November 1951, preparations for the transfer of the unit stationed at the field wers under way. Some air force officers and a sergent carrying baggage were observed arriving at the field. Since the sergeant was formerly observed in Straubberg, it is possible that the former unit returned to the airtical. Almost no flying was performed during the preceding two weeks. The field seemed to be described. There was little traffic by trucks.  2. The occupation of the field was unchanged between h and 10 November. There was no flying. The underground fuel containers were removed. The arrival of fuel was not observed. Incuma of 3 or h men with brunks more accasionally scentleaving the field.  2. Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been leaving the field.  3. The occupation of the field was unchanged between h and 10 November. There was no flying man of 3 or h men with brunks more accasionally scentleaving the field.  2. Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been flat the comber regiment which was transferred to Pranisher the state transport regiment which was transferred to Pranisher of the sumit. It is believed improbable that the comber regiment which was transferred to Pranisher of the sumit at the transport regiment which was transferred to Pranisher of the beaber regiment returned from Altenburg airfield to Strausberg.
DATE PREPARED 10 Levember 1953  SET 1 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE) 25X1  EMARKS  25X1  1. In early November 1951, preparations for the transfer of the unit stationed at the field were under way. Some air force officers and a sergent carrying baggage were observed arriving at the field. Since the sergeant was formerly observed in Strausberg, it is possible that the forcer unit returned to the dirfield. Almost borg, it is possible that the forcer unit returned to the dirfield. Almost no flying was performed during the preceding two weeks. The field seemed to be described. There was little traffic by trucks.  2. The occupation of the field was unchanged between h and 10 Royenbor. There was no flying. The underground fuel containers were removed. The arrival of fuel was not observed. Incums of 3 or home with humbs were occasionally seen leaving the field.  2. Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been distincted indicating the transfer of this unit. It is believed improbable indicating the transfer of this unit. It is believed improbable that the boster regiment which was transferred to Granientum; on 22 annuary 1951 returned to Granienter which was transferred to Granientum; on 22 annuary 1952 returned to Strausberg. There are no indications that the cir transport regiment which was attained in Strausberg.
EFERENCES  1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)  25X1  25X1  1. In early November 1751, preparations for the transfer of the unit stationed at the field were underway. Sone air force officers and a sergeant carrying baggage were observed erriving at the field. Since the sergeant was fornerly observed in Straubborg, it the possible that the forcer unit returned to the airfield. Almost no flying was performed during the preceding two weeks. The field seemed to be deserted. There was little traffic by trucks.  2. The occupation of the field was unchanged between h and 10 November. There was no flying. The underground fuel containers were removed. The arrival of fuel was not observed. Incums of 3 or h men with brunks were occasionally seen leaving the field.  25X1      Comment. The type of twoops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been leaving the field.  25X1      Comment. The type of twoops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been leaving the field.    SX1
AGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) 25X1  25X1  1. In early November 1251, preparations for the transfor of the unit stationed at the field were under preparations for the transfor of the unit stationed at the field were under way. Some air force officers and a sergeant carrying bagoage were observed arriving at the field. Since the sergeant was formerly observed in Strausborg, it is possible that the former unit returned to the airfield. Almost no flying was performed during the preceding two vecks. The field second to be described. There was little traffic by trucks.  2. The compart of the field was unchanged between h and 10 November. There was no flying. The underground full containers were removed. The arrival of fuel was not observed. The unit of a remain of 3 or h were with trunks were necessionally seem leaving the field.  25X1A  * Comment. The type of twoops stationed at Strausborg airfield has not been determined. Indicating the transfer of this unit. It is believed improbable indicating the transfer of this unit. It is believed improbable that the bomber regiment which was transferred to Oranienburg on 22 January 1951.   Comment. The type of twoops stationed at Strausborg airfield has not been accounted to the summary of the training unit of a pround attack regiment is concerned. To information has been received indicating the transfer of this unit. It is believed improbable that the bomber regiment which was transferred to Oranienburg on 22 January 1951.   Comment. The type of twoops stationed at Strausborg airfield has not been accounted to Strausborg. There are no indications that the air transport regimen which was stationed in Strausborg prior to the bomber regiment returned from Altenburg airfield to Strausborg.
25.  5X1 1. In early Bovember 1051, preparations for the transfer of the unit stationed at the field were under way. Sone air force efficers and a sergeant carrying bagage were observed arriving at the field. Since the sergeant was formerly observed in Straughberg, it is possible that the former unit returned to the adrifield. Almost no flying was performed during the preceding two weeks. The field seemed to be deserted. There was little traffic by trucks.  2. The occupation of the field was uncharged between h and 10 Rovember. There was no flying. The underground fuel containers were removed. The arrival of fuel was not observed. Scaums of 3 or h men with brunks were occasionally seem leaving the field.  25X1A *  Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been it is possible that the training unit of a ground attack regiment is concerned. No information has been received indicating the transfer of this unit. It is believed improbable that the owner regiment which was transferred to Granienburg on 25 January 1951 returned to Strausberg. There are no indications that the air transport regiment which was stationed in Strausberg.
5X1 1. In early November 1951, preparations for the transfer of the unit stationed at the field were under way. Some air force officers and a sergeant carrying baggage were observed way. Some air force officers and a sergeant carrying baggage were observed arriving at the field. Since the sergeant was fornorly observed in Strausborg, it is possible that the former unit returned to the airfield. Almost no flying was performed during the preceding two weeks. The field seemed to be described. There was little traffic by trucks.  2. The occupation of the field was unchanged between h and 10 November. There was no flying. The underground field containers were removed. The arrival of fuel was not observed. Irouns of 3 or h were with brunks more occasionally soon leaving the field.  25X14 * Comment. The type of twoops stationed at Strausborg airfield has not been determined. It is possible that the training unit is a possible that the training unit that the bomber regiment which was transferred to Granienburg on 22 January 1953 that the bomber regiment which was transferred to Granienburg on 22 January 1953 returned to Strausborg. There are no indications that the air transport regimen which was stationed in Strausberg prior to the bomber regiment returned from Altenburg airfield to Strausberg.
5X1 1. In early November 1951, preparations for the transfer of the unit stationed at the field were under way. Some air force officers and a sergeant carrying baggage were observed arriving at the field. Since the sergeant was formerly observed in Straus- borg, it is possible that the former unit returned to the airfield. Almost no flying was performed during the preceding two weeks. The field seemed to be deserted. There was little traffic by trucks.  2. The occupation of the field was unchanged between h and 10 Kovember. There was no flying. The underground fuel containers were removed. The arrival of fuel was not observed. Pround of 3 or h men with trunks were occasionally seen  25X14      Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been   determined.
5X1 1. In early November 1951, preparations for the transfer of the unit stationed at the field were under way. Some air force officers and a sergeant carrying baggage were observed arriving at the field. Since the sergeant was formerly observed in Straus- borg, it is possible that the formor unit returned to the airfield. Almost no flying was performed during the preceding two weeks. The field seemed to be deserted. There was little traffic by trucks.  2. The occupation of the field was unchanged between h and 10 Kovember. There was no flying. The underground fuel containers were removed. The arrival of fuel was not observed. leaving the field.  25X1A      Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been   determined.
5X1 1. In early November 1951, preparations for the transfer of the unit stationed at the field were under way. Some air force officers and a sergeant carrying baggage were observed arriving at the field. Since the sergeant was formerly observed in Straus- borg, it is possible that the formor unit returned to the airfield. Almost no flying was performed during the preceding two weeks. The field seemed to be deserted. There was little traffic by trucks.  2. The occupation of the field was unchanged between h and 10 Kovember. There was no flying. The underground fuel containers were removed. The arrival of fuel was not observed. leaving the field.  25X1A      Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been   determined.
5X1 1. In early November 1951, preparations for the transfer of the unit stationed at the field were under way. Some air force officers and a sergeant carrying baggage were observed arriving at the field. Since the sergeant was formerly observed in Straus- borg, it is possible that the formor unit returned to the airfield. Almost no flying was performed during the preceding two weeks. The field seemed to be deserted. There was little traffic by trucks.  2. The occupation of the field was unchanged between h and 10 Kovember. There was no flying. The underground fuel containers were removed. The arrival of fuel was not observed. leaving the field.  25X1A      Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been   determined.
preparations for the transfor of the unit stationed at the first way. Some air force officers and a sergeant carrying baggage were observed arriving at the field. Since the sergeant was fornerly observed in Strausberg, it is possible that the forcer unit returned to the airfield. Almost no flying was performed during the preceding two vecks. The field seemed to be deserted. There was little traffic by trucks.  2. The occupation of the field was unchanged between h and 10 Kovember. There was no flying. The underground fuel containers were removed. The arrival of fuel was not observed. Prouns of 3 or h men with brunks more occasionally soon leaving the field.  25X14 * Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been determined. It is possible that the training unit of a ground attack regiment is concerned. To information has been received indicating the transfer of this unit. It is believed improbable that the bomber regiment which was transferred to Oranienburg on 22 January 1955 returned to Strausberg. There are no indications that the air transport regimen which was stationed in Strausberg prior to the bomber regiment returned from Altenburg airfield to Strausberg.	X1
preparations for the transfer of the unit stationed at the first way. Some air force officers and a sergeant carrying baggage were observed arriving at the field. Since the sergeant was fornerly observed in Strausberg, it is possible that the forcer unit returned to the airfield. Almost no flying was performed during the preceding two weeks. The field seemed to be deserted. There was little traffic by trucks.  2. The occupation of the field was unchanged between h and 10 Kovember. There was no flying. The underground fuel containers were removed. The arrival of fuel was not observed. From so of 3 or h men with brunka more accasionally soon leaving the field.  25X14  **  **  **  **  **  **  **  **  **
preparations for the transfer of the unit stationed at the first way. Some air force officers and a sergeant carrying baggage were observed arriving at the field. Since the sergeant was fornerly observed in Strausberg, it is possible that the forcer unit returned to the airfield. Almost no flying was performed during the preceding two weeks. The field seemed to be deserted. There was little traffic by trucks.  2. The occupation of the field was unchanged between h and 10 Kovember. There was no flying. The underground fuel containers were removed. The arrival of fuel was not observed.  25X1A   Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been determined.  25X1A   Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been determined.  25X1A   Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been determined.  25X1A   Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been determined.  25X1A   Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been determined.  25X1A   Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been determined.  25X1A   Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been determined.  25X1A   Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been determined.  25X1A   Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been determined.  25X1A   Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been determined.  25X1A   Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been determined.  25X1A   Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been determined at Strausberg.  25X1A   Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been determined at Strausberg.  25X1A   Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been determined at Strausberg airfield has not been determined at Strausberg.  25X1A *
arriving at the field. Since the sergent was formerly observed in borg, it is possible that the former unit returned to the airfield. Almost no flying was performed during the preceding two weeks. The field seemed to be deserted. There was little traffic by trucks.  2. The occupation of the field was unchanged between h and 10 Rovember. There was no flying. The underground fuel containers were removed. The arrival of fuel was not observed. Fromms of 3 or h men with trunks were occasionally seem leaving the field.  25X14      Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been determined. It is possible that the training unit is possible that the training unit of a ground attack regiment is concerned. To information has been received indicating the transfer of this unit. It is believed improbable that the bomber regiment which was transferred to Oranienburg on 22 January 1953 returned to Strausberg. There are no indications that the air transport regiment which was stationed in Strausberg prior to the bomber regiment returned from Altenburg airfield to Strausberg.
berg, it is possible that the formor unit returned to the airlied. Management of flying was performed during the preceding two weeks. The field seemed to be deserted. There was little traffic by trucks.  2. The occupation of the field was unchanged between h and 10 November. There was no flying. The underground fuel containers were removed. The arrival of fuel was not observed. Incums of 3 or h men with trunks were occasionally seem leaving the field.  25X1A * Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been determined. In information has been received indicating the transfer of this unit. It is believed improbable that the bomber regiment which was transferred to Oranienburg on 22 January 1951 returned to Strausberg. There are no indications that the air transport regiment which was stationed in Strausberg prior to the bomber regiment returned from Altenburg airfield to Strausberg.
2. The occupation of the field was unchanged between h and 10 November. There was no flying. The underground fuel containers were removed. The arrival of fuel was not observed. Froms of 3 or h men with trunks were occasionally seen leaving the field.  25X1A *  Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been determined. It is possible that the training unit of a ground attack regiment is concerned. No information has been received indicating the transfer of this unit. It is believed improbable that the bomber regiment which was transferred to Oranienburg on 22 January 1951 returned to Strausberg. There are no indications that the air transport regimen which was stationed in Strausberg prior to the bomber regiment returned from Altenburg airfield to Strausberg.
2. The occupation of the field was unchanged between h and 10 kovember. There was no flying. The underground fuel containers were removed. The arrival of fuel was not observed. Grouns of 3 or h men with trunks were occasionally seen leaving the field.  25X1A * Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been determined. It is possible that the training unit of a ground attack regiment is concerned. To information has been received indicating the transfer of this unit. It is believed improbable that the bomber regiment which was transferred to Oranienburg on 22 January 1951 returned to Strausberg. There are no indications that the air transport regiment which was stationed in Strausberg prior to the bomber regiment returned from Altenburg airfield to Strausberg.	25X
2. The occupation of the field was unchanged between h and 10 Kovenbor. There was no flying. The underground fuel containers were removed. The arrival of fuel was not observed. Irouns of 3 or h men with trunks were occasionally seen leaving the field.  25X1A * Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been determined. It is possible that the training unit of a ground attack regiment is concerned. No information has been received indicating the transfer of thirt. It is believed improbable that the bomber regiment which was transferred to Oranienburg on 22 January 1951 returned to Strausberg. There are no indications that the air transport regimen which was stationed in Strausberg prior to the bomber regiment returned from Altenburg airfield to Strausberg.	1
no flying. The underground fuel containers were removed. The unit of the was not observed. Irones of 3 or homer with trunks were occasionally seen leaving the field.  25X1A * Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been determined. It is possible that the training unit of a ground attack regiment is concerned. To information has been received indicating the transfer of this unit. It is believed improbable that the bomber regiment which was transferred to Oranienburg on 22 January 1953 returned to Strausberg. There are no indications that the air transport regimen which was stationed in Strausberg prior to the bomber regiment returned from Altenburg airfield to Strausberg.
25X1A * Commont. The type of troops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been determined.    Strausberg
25X1A * Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been determined.  5X1   determined.   it is possible that the training unit of a ground attack regiment is concerned. No information has been received indicating the transfer of this unit. It is believed improbable that the bomber regiment which was transferred to Oranienburg on 22 January 1951 returned to Strausberg. There are no indications that the air transport regiment which was stationed in Strausberg prior to the bomber regiment returned from Altenburg airfield to Strausberg.	7
25X1A * Comment. The type of troops stationed at Strausberg airfield has not been determined.    Strausberg airfield has not been determined.
determined.  of a ground attack regiment is concerned. No information has been received indicating the transfer of this unit. It is believed improbable that the bomber regiment which was transferred to Oranienburg on 22 January 1951 returned to Strausberg. There are no indications that the air transport regiment which was stationed in Strausberg prior to the bomber regiment returned from Altenburg airfield to Strausberg.
determined.  of a ground attack regiment is concerned. No information has been received indicating the transfer of this unit. It is believed improbable that the bomber regiment which was transferred to Oranienburg on 22 January 1951 returned to Strausberg. There are no indications that the air transport regiment which was stationed in Strausberg prior to the bomber regiment returned from Altenburg airfield to Strausberg.	25
of a ground attack regiment is concerned. No information has been received indicating the transfer of this unit. It is believed improbable that the bomber regiment which was transferred to Oranienburg on 22 January 1951 returned to Strausberg. There are no indications that the air transport regiment which was stationed in Strausberg prior to the bomber regiment returned from Altenburg airfield to Strausberg.
that the bomber regiment which was transferred to Oranienburg on 22 January 1951 returned to Strausberg. There are no indications that the air transport regimen which was stationed in Strausberg prior to the bomber regiment returned from Altenburg airfield to Strausberg.	┙ returned to Strausberg. There are no incidentials that the all ordinary which was stationed in Strausberg prior to the bomber regiment returned from Altenburg airfield to Strausberg.
which was stationed in Strausberg prior at the bonder regiment retained from Altenburg airfield to Strausberg.	ប់
REFERENCE CODY
REFERENCE COPY DO NOT CIRCULATE
REFERENCE COPY DO NOT CIRCULATE
REFERENCE COPY
DO NOT GIRCULATE
DO NOT CIRCULATE
NOT CIRCULATE
and the control of t
CLASSIFICATIONELDI	25X
	_
Decument No	-
No Change In Class.
Class. Changed To: TS S C	٦١
Auth.: HR 70-2  By
Approved For Release 2004/01/28 : CIA-RDP8 2 100457 10093000011-6	